APPLICATION OF INTERNATIONAL HUMANITARIAN LAW AND INTERNATIONAL HUMAN RIGHTS LAW IN AN ARMED CONFLICT

Sanremo (Italy)
October 4, 2019

INTERNATIONAL AND COMPARATIVE LAW RESEARCH CENTER (MOSCOW, RUSSIAN FEDERATION)

The International and Comparative Law Research Center is a non-profit non-governmental organization that conducts research on various issues of international and comparative law of strategic importance for the Russian Federation and Russian business. It also provides expert support to the Russian delegation to the international organizations (ISA, UNIDROIT, etc.), takes part in the work of UNCITRAL as an observer. The Center implements educational projects aimed to promote the study of international law, organizes the annual award for the young international lawyers and the Summer School, holds workshops and conferences on relevant topics. The Center's constantly replenished Library provides access to printed publications and online resources on public and private international law, and comparative law.

INTERNATIONAL INSTITUTE OF HUMANITARIAN LAW (SANREMO, ITALY)

The International Institute of Humanitarian Law is an independent, "non-profit, humanitarian association having social values as its objectives", founded in 1970. The main purpose of the Institute is to promote international humanitarian law and related subjects. The Institute takes initiatives and carries out activities of a practical and multidisciplinary character, in particular, by organising courses of teaching, training and advanced studies in the fields of international humanitarian law, human rights, refugee law and related issues; by promoting dialogue with a view to fostering better respect and implementation of international law and by organising international conferences, meetings and seminars of scholars and practitioners. The Institute works in close collaboration with the most important international organisations dedicated to the humanitarian cause, including ICRC, UNHCR, and IOM. It has operational relations with the European Union, UNESCO, NATO, the Organisation International de la Francophonie, the International Federation of Red Cross and Red Crescent Societies.
