

Mrs Camille Faure is Deputy Director, Department of legal affairs to the French Ministry for the Armed forces, France, where she oversees a vast array of legal issues. She notably previously served as the Head of the International and European Law Division, in the same Department, and as Special Advisor to the Legal Adviser, Legal Affairs Department, Ministry for Foreign Affairs. She is graduated from the Ecole Nationale d'Administration (ENA), 2007.

Camille Faure

Dr Sandra Krähenmann is a Senior Legal and Policy Adviser at Geneva Call. Prior to joining Geneva Call, she worked at the Geneva Academy of International Humanitarian Law and Human Rights, the Swiss Ministry of Defence and as a consultant for various NGOs. As an academic, she focuses on the impact of counter-terrorism on human rights law and international humanitarian law, including in relation to so-called foreign fighters. She also continues to lecture at the Geneva Academy.

Sandra Krähenmann

Dr Tilman Rodenhäuser is a thematic legal adviser at the International Committee of the Red Cross' headquarters in Geneva, Switzerland. He provides legal and policy advice on detainee transfers (non-refoulement), the application of IHL to cyber operations, and on legal obligations of non-State armed groups. Tilman holds a PhD from the Graduate Institute of International and Development Studies in Geneva and recently published the monograph 'Organizing Rebellion: Non-state armed groups under international humanitarian law, human rights law, and international criminal law' (OUP, 2018). He has also published various articles in renowned international journals and received different awards for his work.

Tilman Rodenhäuser

Nathalie Weizmann is Senior Legal Officer with the UN Office for the Coordination of Humanitarian Affairs where her work focuses on IHL as it relates to the protection of civilians and humanitarian activities. Before joining the UN, she was Senior Director of the Counterterrorism and Human Rights Project at Columbia Law School's Human Rights Institute, carrying out research and writing on legal and policy issues relating to U.S. national security, IHL and international human rights law. Earlier, she was a legal adviser with the ICRC, examining issues ranging from judicial guarantees and procedural safeguards, to autonomous weapons and responsible arms transfers, and representing the ICRC in Arms Trade Treaty negotiations.

Nathalie Weizmann