

2nd Online course on integrating gender perspectives into international operations, armed conflicts and other crisis scenarios

Online, 23 October – 17 November 2023

General information

TECHNICAL TIPS

Platform:

The online course is hosted on the Institute's Online Learning Platform, accessible via the Institute's website at <http://iihl.org/> (select "Courses">"Online Courses"), or directly through the following URL <https://www.elearning.iihl.org/>.

Communication software:

The live sessions of the course will be delivered through Zoom, downloadable at <https://zoom.us/download>.

LANGUAGE

Proficiency in English is required to attend the course. Simultaneous translation is not provided.

CERTIFICATE

The official Certificate will be released to participants who attend the course in full (including live and self-paced sessions) and undertake and submit all mandatory assignments and self-evaluation tests within the established deadlines.

SELECTION PROCESS

Officers and practitioners interested in attending this course are invited to apply by submitting the online registration form they can find on the IIHL website at <https://iihl.org/2nd-online-course-on-integrating-gender-perspectives-into-international-operations-armed-conflicts-and-other-crisis-scenarios/>.

Deadline for applications: 15th October 2023.

For any additional information concerning the course, the registration process and/or your participation please contact Ms Sara Rossi at sara.rossi@iihl.org and cc Mr. Edoardo Gimigliano (edoardo.gimigliano@iihl.org).